MANITOBA-MADE VIRTUAL REALITY SHOWCASE

Sponsored by On Screen Manitoba
Explore storytelling through Immersive Content 360 experiences made right here in Manitoba.
Three projects will be set up on First Street from 1-4pm on Saturday, July 29. Come visit and try out these locally-made new media projects and win prizes provided by On Screen Manitoba.

RBC $10,000 EMERGING FILMMAKER COMPETITION

Five Manitoba filmmakers will go head-to-head to pitch their projects to a jury of industry experts before a live audience at this year's Gimli Film Festival. The filmmakers will have three minutes to pitch their short film ideas to a panel of industry professionals in front of a live audience at the Gimli Theatre (74 2nd Ave, Gimli) on Saturday, July 29 at 10 am.

DIRECTING AND ACTING WORKSHOP WITH SEAN GARRITY: USING IMPROVISATION TO UNLOCK SCENES & CHARACTERS

Sponsored by DGC and ACTRA
Free - preregistration required; online on GFF website or APP or by calling. Maximum number of participants: 7 directors and 14 actors.

IN THE NAME OF ALL CANADIANS SCREENING:

To commemorate Canada's 150th anniversary of Confederation, a compilation of six short documentaries inspired by Canada's Charter of Rights and Freedoms has been commissioned by the Hot Docs film festival. From Indigenous rights to multiculturalism to the controversial
'notwithstanding clause,' participating filmmakers have each selected a specific aspect of the Charter to explore, looking at how it resonates in the stories of their fellow Canadians.
